Mother Is Earth's Most Loyal Friend

Her Love Is Unfathomable and Her Devotion Unceasing.

BY CHARLES T. VANCEY.
Mother is earth's truest and most loyal friend. A mother's love is so great that the power of death and the grave cannot extinguish its flame. How indelibly engraved upon the mind is the picture of Mother, and time can never efface it. How vividly her form and face remain in memory's domain. That beautiful memory of Mother, with the dew of youth upon her cheeks, and the smile of a heart that never grew old, in a mother's life there is never indifference, but there is always the ever-ready sympathizing feeling, and countless times her warm tears have formed their way to the cheek. Her heart is forever beating with a pure and holy affection, though her cheeks may be all furrowed and the gray locks may fall over a brow wrinkled with care.

A mother's love is unfathomable, though years of trial and the awful agonies of physical suffering may steal away the freshness of her life, but like a flower, the fragrance of her love is richer than ever. Mother is the tree of one's existence. Age does not take away her sweetness and her love is as fresh as ever. Her devotion is unceasing; her vigilance through the quiet watches of the night, untiring. How oft has she sat beside the tiny crib, watching the baby's sleep, and when she was asleep, how she watched him, and ministered to every want. She would not allow him to cry, and she would take care of you when as a baby you were ailing and she knew the meaning of a baby's cry. Whether it meant suffering or contentment, Mother always understood. Her language between baby and herself was not meant for the outside world to know. Her love was for her boy or girl, even though they are grown far into manhood or womanhood, and she would never let her mother know that she was ailing, but you can crown her pathway of life with the love of a mother's hand.

DYE CONCERN TRIES TO BOSS CONGRESS

The Senator was working in the interests of the Du Ponts. Senator Frelinghuysen presented this charge, and precipitated a bitter controversy by demanding the words uttered by Senator King be expunged from the Record. He glared across the aisle at Senator King and exclaimed: "You'd better watch out!" At the end of a heated argument, Senator King admitted that "perhaps he had gone too far" and asked to have his statement against Frelinghuysen withdrawn. It has been known here for some time that the Du Ponts were behind the dye bill and that they were also interested in the candidacy of General Woodbury. The bill had never been revealed, however, that they made their support of the general's candidacy conditional upon unstinted support of the bill by General Wood's Washington manager, who happens to be a member of the Senate.

STRANGER'S ADVICE WORTH A FORTUNE TO THIS NORFOLK MAN

J. T. Powell Was Almost Down and Out When Unknown Man Told Him What To Do For His Trouble.

WAS SOON RESTORED TO SPLENDID HEALTH

Gained Fifteen Pounds and Strength Returned; Says Tanlac Is Greatest Medicine In The World.

The one feature that stands out more prominently than any other, perhaps, in connection with the introduction and sale of Tanlac in Norfolk is the very large number of men and women who have gained astonishingly rapid increase in weight as a result of its use. Only a short time ago Mrs. Mary Ingram, employed at the Alsace Hotel, reported that she had gained thirty-nine pounds in just a few weeks' time. A few days later William S. Ruckey, 2714 Debra Avenue, reported a gain of twenty-one pounds. Among the many who have more recently testified to the powers of the medicine is J. T. Powell, 48 Second Street, Riverside, who called at the Dozier-Shreckhise drug store the other day and reported a gain of fifteen pounds. Mr. Powell is a machinist at the Union Iron Works, has lived in Norfolk all his life, and is highly respected by all who know him. "I made a statement several months ago," said Mr. Powell, "about how much good Tanlac did me, and as I am still enjoying the best of health, I want to go on record again, this time to let my friends know how well the medicine did its work for me. "As I said in my former statement, my appetite had been very poor for three years, and I had become so rundown, weak and nervous that it was an effort for me to do any sort of work. For eight months previous to the time I got Tanlac I could never eat a bite of breakfast, and what little I managed to eat at other times was wasted and seemed to do me very little good. I would float up with sour gas until I had to unhook my trousers and let out my belt and then couldn't be comfortable. Many a time I got so dizzy I had to go in some store and sit down until that swimming in my head passed off. I felt tired all the time, and after eating and tossing most all night suffering terribly from nervousness and the gas on my stomach, I hardly had strength to get up in the morning. I got so I actually dreaded to eat and almost stopped rather than endure the suffering it caused me. I got in such a low state of health that I had to lay off from work two or three days at a time and lost so much weight that I hardly looked like myself. I would tremble like a leaf from weakness and felt down-hearted and depressed all the time.

Coming over from Norfolk to Norfolk on the ferry one day, a stranger noticed how I shook and how weak I looked, and he asked me why I didn't take something for my trouble. I told him I had taken everything I ever heard of, but could not get well, and he said: "I will run down like you will take Tanlac, and get well, and if you will take Tanlac you will get well, too." Well, as soon as I landed in Norfolk I bought a bottle of Tanlac, and sure enough, when I finished taking it there was a marked improvement in me. The second bottle made me feel still better, and I commenced to pick up in weight. After taking five bottles I was a well man, had gained fifteen pounds, and the best thing about it is, I continue well and still retain my wonderful increase in weight and strength. My friends often speak of how well I look, and, thanks to Tanlac, I am well. I sleep sound every night, never miss a day from my work and am as fine as I ever did in my life. So I can testify to both the quick and lasting results one gets from Tanlac, and am always ready to say a good word for it."

Tanlac is sold in Richmond by Grant Drug Co. and Tragle Drug Co.—Adv.

HOW TO RAISE BETTER THAN CALOMEL BABY CHICKS

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. For 17 years he used these tablets (a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil) in his private practice with great success. They do all the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. No pains, no griping, no injury to the gums or tinge from acid foods—yet they stimulate the liver and bowels. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." Note how they clear clouded brain and perk up the spirits. 10c and 25c a box.

EXISTING COSTS SHOULD GOVERN SALE OF SHIPS

Business Men Offer Suggestion on Proposed Disposal of Shipping Board Vessels.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, May 7.—Present cost of reproduction rather than original costs should determine the Shipping Board's prices for its war-built tonnage, in the opinion of the committee of business men appointed by Chairman Benson to suggest terms of sale for the vessels owned by the board.

The committee, which was named after a conference of business men here last month, has submitted a report, which was made public tonight by the Shipping Board.

The report asserts that as the ships owned by the board were built as a war measure, under war conditions with attendant abnormal costs and as a new industry had to be built up as a war necessity, the abnormal cost should be absorbed as war waste and prices should be fixed upon the basis of present prices for reproduction, considering both foreign and domestic production costs.

Taking up the subject of terms, the committee recommended that 10 per cent cash be payable on delivery of the ship with additional payments of the rate of 2 per cent to be paid semi-annually for three years, and the balance in twelve yearly installments of 1 per cent each. Title would pass to the purchaser when in the discretion of the board a sufficient amount had been paid. The board would have a first lien on the vessel until all payments were made.
